Brownell's Cooking Range.

THE subscriber has just completed the invention of a new Cooking Range, to which he invites the attention of the public. This Range possesses qualities for expeditious boiling and cooking that other Ranges do not, and it occupies but a small space of room.

Brownell's Cooking Range has six eight inch boilers, any two, or four of which, can be thrown into one, so as to admit of a large boiler; and it is provided with a set of rings so that any size furniture can be used on it. Its Oven is large, convenient of access, and having an upward draft, it bakes evenly with a small quantity of fuel.

One of these Ranges is in successful operation at the store of the subscriber, subject to the examination of the public, who are invited to call and take a look at it. WILLIAM BROWNELL. June 2

CLOVE ANODYNE TOOTH-ACHE DROPS.—The Clove Anodyne is the best of all Tooth-ache remedies. It is immediate and certain in its effects, curing the most violent tooth-ache, or pain in the gums in ten minutes. Experience has proved that this Anodyne in any position will give immediate and permanent relief, after the failure of every other remedy; it is pleasant to the taste and smell; will not injure the teeth or gums in any way, and a few applications will entirely renovate the pain and soreness from a decayed tooth, so that it may be filled and rendered useful as ever. When the pain proceeds from the face or gums around a tooth apparently sound, this application will give immediate relief, by rubbing a few drops to the part affected. Price 25 cents. Prepared and sold by HENRY JOHNSON, Chemist and Druggist, 273 Broadway, corner of Chambers street, in the granite building. Sold in Newport by R. R. HAZARD, near the Court House. Aug 18th

CLOTHING! GREAT ATTRACTIONS!

OREGON CLOTHING WAREHOUSE! Corner of Thames & Franklin Streets. Fashion, Economy, and Gentility United!!

CLOTHING for thousands now opening at that Great and Popular Clothing Establishment, so well known to all as being the Emporium of Fashion and Low Prices.

We are now preparing for the Spring Campaign, having just received from Boston and New York the largest and most splendid assortment of fashionable SPRING CLOTHING ever offered in this town, having been selected from the largest and most fashionable Clothing Houses in the country; and, considering they were bought on the cash system, and at exceedingly low prices, we think we can afford to sell a little cheaper than any other similar establishment in the State, without exception. Among them may be found English, French, and German Cloths:

Frock and Dress Coats, They seem forever fresh and bright, And give the wearer great delight; Cut, pressed, and made in tasty manner— They win the envy of the scanner; While hundreds who have purchased them Praise aloud—"A gem," "a gem!"

Pantaloons. In this department we surrender To no one, of any gender, Brovelothes, Doekings, and Cassimers, More kinds than we can tell you here. There's not a form, however poor, To which they can't impart a cure; The matchless skill in wielding shears, Plainly in pantaloons appears; To walk, Sirs, in our pantaloons, Is one of fashion's sweetest boons.

Vests. A Vest is a most important feature Upon the breast of any creature, And should, at least, be neat and clean, If you're expecting to be seen. To aid mankind in such a course, We have on shelves and in our drawers A large assortment of the best— Hereafter none should lack a Vest.

Hats and Caps. Of the latest styles, and at our usual low prices. Season's Clothing.

Of every description, Oil Jackets and Pants, Reefing Jackets, Flannel Shirts and Drawers, Gurnsey Frocks, Tar Hats, &c., &c.

Also may be found Collars, Bosoms, Shirts, Handkerchiefs, Gloves, "Suspenders," Gravats, Stocks, Socks, smoking Caps, Umbrellas, Trunks, Carpet Bags, Valises, and besides these a great many other articles too numerous to mention. Gentlemen about purchasing will find it greatly to their advantage to call and examine our stock, before purchasing elsewhere.

Don't forget the Oregon Clothing Ware House, corner of Thames and Franklin Streets. April 3 J. M. & S. HAMMETT.

Oak Row, No. 2. SPRING FASHION, 1847.

THE LAST MELODY.

The Emperor Alexander was dead. His next Brother, the Grand Duke Constantine, was the natural successor to the throne of Russia, but, by a deed, till then kept secret, Constantine, in Alexander's life-time, had renounced his claim to the throne in favor of his younger brother the present Emperor Nicholas. The accession of the latter to the throne on the death of Alexander, not only excited general surprise, but an unsettled feeling soon manifested itself amongst the people and the army. The time appeared favorable for the breaking out of a conspiracy that had been forming for some years; and an insurrection took place at St. Petersburg, on Christmas day, 1825; but the movement of the conspirators was too hasty; and the attempt not being well seconded by the troops, failed.

One hundred and thirty-six leaders of the rebellion, were seized, tried and condemned, and almost all of them were sentenced to perpetual labor, or to exile in Siberia. The five principal chiefs were condemned to be broken on the wheel, but did not undergo that punishment, the gibbet being substituted by an ukase of the Emperor.

Among these five chiefs, the first and most remarkable was Paul Pestel, Colonel of the infantry regiment of Wiatska.

The long and arduous task to which he had devoted himself, had not wholly engrossed the mind of this brave and persevering conspirator. Alive to the charms of the arts, he cultivated them with success, and, in particular he was an excellent musician.

The young and beautiful Catherine W— had conceived a devoted attachment to Pestel. Gifted with an exquisite voice, she loved to sing his melodies. The passion with which she inspired him was equally fervent as her own; and if ever the brave conspirator could forget his gloomy reveries, it was when he was seated by Catherine's side, and dreaming of love and happiness.

On the eve of the day when the insurrection was to break out, Pestel, more absorbed than usual, scarcely answered Catherine when she spoke to him, and at times seemed not to hear her.

"What ails you to-day, Paul?" she said, taking his hand. "You do not look at me, you do not speak to me as usual. I never saw you so cold, so absent, when you were with me before."

Pestel looked at her sadly. "What would you do, Catherine, were you never to see me again?"

"I should die!" said Catherine with enthusiasm, and then added, in a voice of terror,

"But, good God, why this question? Paul, you cannot think of forsaking me?"

Pestel was silent.

"It cannot be," said Catherine: "you have sworn to love me until death."

"Yes, Catherine, while this heart beats it is yours. But, (embracing her with ardent yet melancholy tenderness,) promise me, Catherine, if I die, you will live for the sake of your old father, and that, even when I'm dead, I shall never cease to occupy your thoughts."

"I promise you to live as long as my grief will allow me. But, Paul, it is not I who shall have to undergo this cruel trial?"

"There are presentiments, Catherine, which I cannot mistake," said Pestel, declining his head on his breast; "an inward monitor warns me that I must abandon my two visions of happiness—the bliss of living in the enjoyment of your love, Catherine, and the glory of securing the freedom and independence of my country."

"What do you mean?" said Catherine, whose fear and agitation increased every moment. "What means these mysterious words, these gloomy predictions? Paul, you are concealing a secret from me."

"Yes, Catherine."

"A secret from me Paul, who have never kept one from you?"

"You have had all mine—but this does not belong to me."

"Alas! I imagined from your looks, your words, your thought of death and parting, it must be something very terrible!"

"It is terrible indeed!"

"Hear me, Catherine: when I give you my parting kiss this morning, it may, perhaps, be the last you will ever receive from me. But, whatever may be my lot, if you are told, 'Paul is dead,' come! and you shall find a remembrance of me for you! for I swear to you, Catherine, my last thought shall be of you."

Pestel's presentiment did not deceive him. He saw her no more.

The day after the execution of his sentence, a young female, bathed in tears, obtained permission to visit his cell. It was Catherine. After a long search she discovered some lines of music pencilled on the wall. Above them there was only two words, "For Her!" Underneath was Paul's name.

Two years after, a poor maniac died in a lunatic asylum, whose madness consisted in singing every day at the same hour the same little melody that was pencilled on the wall of the cell. The poor maniac was Catherine—and the air she sang was—The Last Melody of Pestel.

ROMAN EYE BALSAM, FOR

Weak and Inflamed eyes.—This valuable Balsam has been used for many years in private practice by the most established Oculists in this and foreign countries, and may be confidently relied upon as the most speedy cure for weak or inflamed eyes arising from any cause, that has ever been offered to the world. Its peculiar operation consists in removing all unhealthy action in the vessels of the eye, and parts adjacent, substituting a healthy process, which soon results in perfect cure. The afflicted are invited to try, and become convinced. For sale in Newport by R. R. HAZARD, sign of the Golden Mortar, near the Court House. Aug 18th

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER, 11, 1847.

BY O. F. JACKSON, 97-THAMES ST.

(Correspondence of the News.)

New-York, Sept. 8, 1847.

FRIEND JACKSON:—The weather to-day is exactly suited for a stay-in-the-house kind of a body, who likes to ramble anywhere and every where, in clear weather. I am not in the best of spirits myself, probably borrowing a little gloom from the weather. Rain and fog predominates. I did intend to take a ramble through some of our neighboring cities, and give you the results of my observations, but a veto is placed upon it, and there is no appeal. However, if it should clear off in a few days, I shall avail myself of the first opportunity and take a look at the natives.

The most absorbing topic since the arrival of European news, is the admission into Mexico of Gen. Parades, under the protection of the British flag. The more reflection there is had upon the subject, the more excited the public mind becomes, and many suppose that the British government connived at and assisted him to enter Mexico in safety. The fact of the captain of the steamer exchanging signals with the people on shore, and private signals too, and the immediate assistance sent off to the ship from the shore, the boat ready along-side, and Senor Atucha, a naturalized American citizen holding the office of Inspector of customs at Vera Cruz, allowing him to pass, (knowing him well,) all look as though treachery was at the bottom. Time will tell if the suspicion is just.

The excitement caused by the news from Europe has partially subsided; still, the effect is felt yet. Treasury notes are tumbling down a little, and stocks of all kinds, fancy and substantial, have been a little uncertain of late.

The Post Master General's troubles continue, and I believe are on the increase rather than decrease. The President of the Hartford and New Haven Railroad, has published a letter, in which he defends to conduct of the Company and Capt. Vandenberg, for refusing to carry the mail. The Company are interested in the boat's running in connection with the road, and as Cave Johnson has refused to pay the amount claimed as compensation, and the company's refusing to accept the P. M. G.'s price, the latter has introduced a competition for travelling patronage. The President of the Company thinks they are justified in retaliating. Mr. Cave must look out, or he will get the affairs of the Department in such a snarl, that it will take all of the term of his successor to set things right again. His incompetency is generally admitted, and for the sake of the public it is hoped he will resign.

This is said to be positively the last day of the Junk in this city. She leaves for Boston as soon as she can get out of the clutches of the law. The Chinese are fast becoming civilized; they show various symptoms of civilization such as getting drunk on rum, fighting a la Canton, rioting, knocking over apple stands, &c.

The counsel of the Chinese sailors has filed a petition for a libel on the Junk. Monsieur, Senor, or something else Hid Shang, Ung Ti, Lim Chugsi, Khosing Thien, and twenty-two others have signed the petition. They also sue for wages from the time they left Whampoa, also for maintenance here, and means sufficient to procure a passage back to Whampoa, (the latter requiring two hundred dollars each.) They claim that such was the agreement for the voyage, which they understood was to be for Bata via or Singapore. The Captain's counsel objected, but the court thought the men had a right to libel the vessel, and the order was allowed.

Mr. Astor, (poor man) has a lawsuit with the Mayor, (as President of the board of Supervisors,) for being wrongfully assessed. The board have resolved to sustain the Mayor. Mr. Astor thinks the mode of procedure was contrary to law, and he thinks to obtain damages.

The French residents celebrated Lafayette's birth-day in a very cordial manner. The French hotels and houses displayed their tri-colored flags, and in the afternoon the French Company paraded the streets. Their dress was beautiful and most becoming.

Powers' statute of the Greek Slave is attracting crowds of admirers. It is estimated that the average number of visitors per day is six hundred.

The Italian opera at Castle Garden is very attractive. Everybody went down last evening, expecting to hear I Capuletti i Montechi. A placard informed them that the indisposition of Signorina Todesco, who was to sustain the principal part, had compelled the manager to substitute La Sompambula. Some left disappointed, others stayed and found the opera was well sung, and were well repaid for the trouble.

The theatres are all well attended, and all other places of amusement in proportion. I rather guess I have spun this yarn out long enough, so I will stop and take a turn.

Yours over,

RAMBLER.

"CITY" ITEMS.

Rev. Daniel A. Wise, of Providence, will deliver a discourse on Sabbath Schools in the Methodist Episcopal Church to-morrow afternoon, at the close of which a collection will be taken for the benefit of the school connected with the church.

Yesterday was the day fixed upon by the Public School Committee for a celebration of the school children, but as it rained very hard all day, the celebration was necessarily postponed, and the children were, no doubt, greatly disappointed.

In another column will be found an advertisement of a boarding house to let, which enjoys the best run of custom of any private boarding house in town. A rare opportunity is here offered for any one who wishes to keep a boarding house.

The Fakir of Ava did not play last evening, on account of the rain. This evening he offers a rich entertainment at Masonic Hall, and all who have not witnessed his wonderful performances should go and see him.

[For the Daily News.]

I am not a "Pro Pudor," and this, my first complaint, is not against any church or congregation, but is intended to stir up the pure minds of the Long Wharf Commissioners, to the necessity of lighting their frequented part of the town. Permit me to suggest the propriety of placing lamps at a reasonable distance on one side of the wharf, even if they are extinguished immediately after the departure of the steamboat. Strangers are very liable to accidents in coming in contact with the numberless posts and other useless nuisances which now obstruct the entire length of it.

By giving this an insertion, you will oblige the writer, and perhaps prevent some luckless wight from severe accident.

A SUFFERER.

The New York Mirror of the 8th, contains a series of resolutions passed by the passengers detained in the cars on the Providence and Stonington railroad, on Monday night last, censuring, severely, the superintendent of the road for permitting the train to leave Providence with an engine attached incapable of performing the work required of it.

The deputy keeper of the Bellevue Almshouse, New York, was arrested on Wednesday last, charged with stealing a mahogany coffin, sent there by the wife of a man who had died in that establishment, and substituting for it a pine one. We cannot conceive what a man wants to steal a coffin for, except it be for his own use, and a man that goes as far as this, it seems to us is giving himself unnecessary trouble.

The Secretary of the Treasury, since the first of January last, has sent upwards of twelve millions of dollars to New Orleans, since the government was organized—and all without the loss of a single dollar, and at an average expense (including all charges) not exceeding a quarter per cent.

An extra session of the New York Legislature convened at Albany on the 8th inst.

The New York State Agricultural fair takes place at Saratoga next week. The Address written by Silas Wright, to be delivered on that occasion by himself, will be read by Gen. Dix.

PUBLIC OPINION IN TENNESSEE.—The Ohio press make the following statement: "We have ourselves heard Senator Jarman declare repeatedly, that 'If the abstract question were submitted to the people of Tennessee to-morrow, three fifths of them would vote for the abolition of slavery.'"

ADDITIONAL FROM MEXICO.—New Orleans papers to the 31st state that ship Agnes had arrived from Vera Cruz, which port she left on the 21st. Her advices furnish the details of Capt. Welle's expedition, but nothing later.

The Jalapa Bulletin of the 15th says that Father Jarquin was the leader of the attacks on Major Lally's train, and that the American loss was 300, which it is believed is exaggerated. Major Lally had reached Jalapa with his force, including the detachment of twelve dragoons. Capt. Welle's loss was about 40.

An arrival from the Brazos with dates to the 24th brings particulars of several skirmishes which have taken place between the Mexicans under Gen. Urrea and American scouting parties and trains, on the road between Monterey and Matamoras. About thirty Americans have been killed in these various skirmishes. The Mexican loss is much heavier.

The Democratic Association of Washington held a meeting on Monday night, when Francis P. Blair delivered a eulogium upon the character and services of the late Silas Wright.

The Norwich News, a democratic paper published in Norwich, Conn., is advertised for sale. The News has been established about seven years, and has acquired a good circulation and advertising patronage.

THE NEXT CONGRESS.—The House, so far as the elections have gone, stands 96 Democrats, 109 Whigs, 1 Native, and 2 Independents. If there should be no political change in those yet to elect, the result will be 113 Democrats, 112 Whigs, 1 Native, and 2 Independents.

The Seventeenth Exhibition of American Manufactures at Philadelphia will be held from the 19th to the 30th day of October ensuing.

It is stated that amongst the charges upon which Gen. Kearny arrested Col. Fremont and ordered him to Washington for trial, is that of cowardice!

WHITE SLAVES IN MEXICO.—The Camanches have a great many prisoners whom they use as slaves. They are principally white, women and children, and are stripped and painted black, and generally on foot.

SAILING OF THE LIBERIA PACKET.—The bark "Liberia Packet," Captain Goodmanson, sailed from Baltimore on her second voyage to Africa on Friday, having on board eighty colored persons, who have resolved, under the auspices and encouragement held out to them by the Maryland Colonization Society, to emigrate to the colony of Liberia, in the land of their forefathers. The embarkation drew together quite an assemblage of the friends of the colonization cause, as well as of the friends and relatives of the emigrants. Previous to going on board the vessel religious services were held on the wharf, and an appropriate farewell address was delivered to them.

SUGAR.—It is estimated that this year's sugar crop in Louisiana will exceed last years by 60,000 hogsheds.

BROOKLYN NAVY YARD.—There are now in employ at the Brooklyn Navy Yard, about 900 men—500 engaged upon the dry dock, at work night and day, and the balance on the ordinary work of the yard. The keel of the new war steamer ordered to be built at the Brooklyn Navy Yard, has been laid. It is 210 feet in length. Preparations are now making to raise the frame of the vessel, and it is expected that this will be accomplished in the course of a week or two.

SERIOUS CONSIDERATION.—An unmarried lady on the wintry side of fifty, hearing of the marriage of a young lady, her friend observed with a deep and sentimental sigh, "Well, I suppose it's what we all must come to."

The large sale of Brown's Sarsaparilla and Tomato Bitters, is another proof of its efficacy. It is now about three years since it was first offered to the public, although it has been used by one of the most distinguished physicians for many years in private practice; since which the sale has steadily increased, and it has been sent for small parts of the country, where it was never advertised, but recommended by persons that have used it. It has been shipped to foreign ports, and found ready sale; that alone would seem to be proof enough of its utility.

How many medicines there are advertised that never sell, and soon go down, and are forgotten! How different it is with this! It finds a ready sale where it has never been advertised; and its sale continues to increase in all places as it becomes known.

DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.—The extraordinary success attending the use of this medicine in diseases of the lungs, and the many singular cures it has effected, having naturally attracted the attention of many physicians, as well as the whole fraternity of quacks, various conjectures as to its nature have arisen respecting its composition, some physicians have supposed it to contain iodine, other ignorant pretenders say it must contain mercury, and to some such substance they each attribute its singular efficacy. As such opinions are altogether erroneous, and calculated to prejudice many persons against it, we pledge our honor that it contains nothing of this kind, or any thing the least injurious; on the contrary, it is composed of the most simple substances, the principal of which are the extracts of tar and wild cherry bark, and the whole secret of its efficacy consists in the mode by which they are prepared.

None genuine, unless signed J. BUTTS on the wrapper.

PROCRISTINATING THE THREE OF TIME.—Delay is dangerous—neglect that Cold and Cough a few weeks and the hope of recovery will be lost to you forever. Let not pecuniary consideration deter you from trying to save your life and health, while there is a chance. Consumption is annually sweeping off thousands to the tomb; no disease has baffled the skill of Physicians like it; no Physician, perhaps, has done more for this large class of suffering humanity, than Dr. Wistar. An ounce of preventative is worth a pound of cure; therefore before your lungs become ulcerated, and so diseased that no human means can save you from an early grave, try in season, try at once, a medicine which has been of such infinite value to thousands—obtain a bottle of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, take it, get another, if necessary, persevere in using it, until you have removed the disease entirely, which if neglected will terminate your life. Be not deceived by quacks, with their imitations and counterfeits; buy none but the genuine and original, which is signed J. BUTTS on the wrapper.

Radway's Chinese Medicated Soap is superior to all imported French, Berlin, and other Soaps. Tan, sunburn, pimples, blotches, pustules, ring-worm, salt rheum, erysipelas, rash, scurvy, the bites and stings of mosquitoes, rough and discolored skin, pale and sickly complexion all yields to the curative propensities and beneficial influence of this valuable and delicious emollient. In fact, be the complexion ever so disfigured, or the skin discolored or diseased, Radway's truly excellent medicated soap never fails in rendering the skin soft, smooth, fair, sweet, clear and healthy. Many persons suffer great annoyance during the summer season from the troublesome insects mosquitoes. Those persons, subject to those annoyances, by applying Radway's soap to such parts of the cuticle as is bitten, it will instantly alleviate the pain, subside the irritation and instantly remove every vestige of blemish. For general toilet soap it is unequalled, it proves an agreeable perfume, and is entirely free from all poisonous admixtures, or irritating ingredients. It is much cheaper than any other medicated soap, and is acknowledged by thousands to be superior to all others ever offered to the public. No Chinese Medicated Soap is genuine unless signed, R. G. Radway. Be sure to ask for Radway's Soap, and take no other. Sold for 12½ cents per cake, by Dr. R. J. Taylor.

[Extract of a letter from Dr. Williams of Vt.]
Gentleman—I will thank you to send me two dozen more of your Sarsaparilla and Tomato Bitters. I have used it with great success in four cases of dyspepsia, curing each of them in an almost incredible short time; likewise one case of scrofulous humor and one of jaundice. I consider it a valuable compound, and must say I have used it with the happiest effects. Should like to have it as soon as convenient. One of the cases of dyspepsia was a gentleman who had suffered a long time, and had been to the Springs for two seasons.

A. Boyden, Esq., of Cambridge, cured of the dyspepsia of a year standing, after trying a hundred remedies without the least effect.

Another life saved by the use of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of wild cherry. The following certificate is from the wife of Mr. Enos Perry, a very respectable farmer in Oxford County, Maine, and can be relied upon as true in every particular. It was not solicited, but given by the lady, from a sense of duty, feeling that she owed the preservation of her life to Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

Rumford, Oxford County, Me., July 22, 1847.
This may certify that I have for a number of years been severely afflicted with the asthma. In October, 1843, I took a violent cold, which produced a very severe cough, which was accompanied with severe pains in my side, and I sweat profusely nights. These bad symptoms continued, until I was so much reduced that I was unable to do any work about house, or even walk across the room without assistance. In July, 1844, I was so afflicted with shortness of breath, such great difficulty in breathing, and in such severe pain, that I was unable to lie in bed or sleep for three weeks. One physician who attended me and another who was consulted, both gave me up to die—said they could do no more for me. My friends despaired of my life. I had no hope of myself. I then commenced taking Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. Before I had taken one bottle, I was able to walk about the house. I continued to take the Balsam until I had taken four bottles, and NOW I AM WELL, free from pain, little or no cough, do my work, keep no help, and have not enjoyed better health for fifteen years.

JONES'S SOAP.
Ladies in the country and watering places, See how the sun has burnt your faces! Look at your necks—how yellow, dark with tan! Why, 'twill repulse the love of any man! These freckles, too, you know they'd quickly fly if Jones's Soap you'd use; come once—do try! It costs but fifty cents, and I am told it's worth, aye, doubly worth its weight in gold. Persons who have had no faith in it, have been astounded at the wonderful effect of Jones's—that is, the genuine Jones's Soap—in purifying the skin. For sale by Dr. R. J. Taylor.

CLICKER'S SUGAR-COATED PILLS.
The grand purgative for the cure of headache, piles, rheumatism, dyspepsia, scurvy, small pox, jaundice, rising in the throat, fevers of all kinds, heartburns, coughs, consumption, erysipelas, deafness, colds, gout, gravel, pains in the back, palpitation of the heart, inward weakness, dropsy, asthma, measles, salt rheum, worms, quinsy, whooping cough, fits, liver complaint, itchings of the skin, nervous complaints, and a variety of other diseases, arising from impurities of the blood, and obstructions in the organs of digestion.
CAUTION. Beware of an imitation article called Improved Sugar-Coated Pills, purporting to be patented, as both the pills and pretended patent are forgeries, got up by a miserable quack in the city of New York, who for the last four or five years has made his living by counterfeiting popular medicines.
Remember, Dr. C. V. Clicker is the inventor of sugar-coated pills, and that nothing of the sort was ever heard of until he introduced them in June 1833. Persons should therefore always ask for Clicker's sugar-coated pills, and take no others, or they will become the victims of a fraud. 25 cents per box, or five boxes for $1.
Sold in Newport by R. J. Taylor, and by one agent in every town in New-England.

GENUINE BEAR'S OIL.
Highly Perfumed. — Perhaps our ladies and fashionables are not aware that three-quarters of the "Bear's Oil," (so called) with which they anoint their locks, wondering that it does them so little good, is nothing in the world but hog's lard, so highly scented as to escape detection, save on close examination. This, however, is simply the fact, and one that ought to be known. The only safe way is to purchase your Bear's Oil of HENRY JOHNSON, who gets it direct from Canada and the North Western Territory, and who never sells an ounce until he knows it to be genuine. The real Bear's Oil is a wonderful beautifier and strengthener of the hair, and should be used by every one desirous of beautiful locks.

FOSTER'S SALOON.
An Extensive Lodging and Eating Saloon, CONDUCTED ON THE EUROPEAN PLAN, Nos. 83, 85, 87, Broad-st., Providence.
THE subscriber having recently leased the entire upper part of the genteel and commodious brick house adjacent to his Eating Saloon, in Broad street, begs leave to inform his friends, and the public generally, that he has just opened in connection with his Eating Saloon, an extensive suite of Lodging Rooms. His establishment will hereafter be conducted therefore, on the European Plan—that is, visitors will be accommodated with lodgings either by the day or week, as may be desired, upon the most favorable terms; while in the Eating Saloon, meals will be served up to order, at all hours of the day and evening, at prices entirely satisfactory. The Lodging Rooms will be found to be spacious and airy, and the beds and bedding at all times clean and comfortable. In the Eating Saloon will be found an extensive Bill of Fare, (comprising all the varieties and luxuries offered at the best hotels,) any portion of which will be served up at any time in the best style and upon the very lowest terms.
Adjoining the Eating Room is a commodious Reading and Sitting Room, elegantly decorated with numerous costly paintings and engravings, and furnished with an extensive cabinet of curiosities, containing a great many rare and interesting things from all parts of the world. This room is regularly supplied with all the city papers; with many of the New York and Boston Journals, and with the magnificent London Pictorial.
In addition to the accommodations offered to gentlemen at this establishment the subscriber has also handsomely furnished apartments for ladies, where they can at any time be furnished with dinner or tea, or with cake, confectionary, ice-cream, soda, &c., &c.
The subscriber would also give notice that he is constantly receiving fresh Oysters by the steamers, and that they may be obtained at his Saloon, in excellent condition throughout the season.
Merchants, travellers, and citizens generally, are invited to favor the subscriber with a call, as he believes his establishment offers peculiar advantages which need only to be seen to be appreciated.
